SONORA BALL TEAM HOME.

The Sonora championship baseball team returned to Nogales yesterday (Dec. 19) from Mexico City, where they completed their playing tour of the southern republic rather suddenly, due it is said to an unwarranted attack on the umpire by Manager O. H. Marquez.

Marquez was removed as manager of the team by General Calles within half an hour after the attack, and the team returned home under the management of Ruiz.

The assault of the umpire by Marquez occurred when in the tenth inning of a hard game with one of the strong clubs of Mexico City, Lyall slid home and the catcher failed to tag him. But after a second look the catcher noticed that Lyall had not touched home plate in his slide, and so tagged him out. He was ruled "out" by the umpire, and the members of the Sonora team agree that the decision was just.

Marquez, who had been raging the umpire during the game, immediately walked over to him and knocked him down twice, the last blow knocking him unconscious. Spectators at the game, numbering some 7,000, an unusually large crowd, became enraged at Marquez' action and immediately started to throw bottles, stones, and chairs from the grand stand at the Sonora players, and Marquez in particular.

It was only by the prompt interference of soldiers and police who were on guard at the game, that Marquez was saved from serious injury. There were yells of "lynch him," and many other threats from the crowd. Marquez was held in jail twenty four hours and freed after being fined fifty pesos. He is no longer connected with the team in any capacity, according to the statements of the men.

The men who returned are Ruiz, Salazar, Hammond and Cruz, pitcher; Cruz going on through to San Fernando, California, where he will play winter ball, the other members of the team were Felix Ramirez, Robles, Bojorquez, Lyall, Gill, Carrillo, Pete Arzate, and Chilli Francis, who returned a week ago to get in condition to play with the Louisville Americans next season.

The players' one and all say they had a wonderful trip, and all join in saying that the treatment accorded them was the best possible, and that if it had not been for the uncalled for hot-headedness of Marquez, they would have stayed in Mexico City for at least another six weeks.

Bill Haley is spoken of by the boys as being a "regular fellow." Bill has associated himself with the Obregon regime as publicity agent, and sends word to the Nogales public that every thing worth while will be immediately sent to the Morning Democrat, says the Democrat.
